11:00-12:00

- Redemption: Bob Fabey 208 A

Redemption (ri-demp-shun) (rĭ-dĕmp'shən) Do you feel like you have made or are making a complete mess of your life? If you do, you're in good company! Come and learn how God has been working since the beginning of time to make things right and how you fit into the story! There's no need to worry, He's in the salvage business!

- Lead Worshipper Development: Dave Powers 209 A

A brief overview of 3 stinkin' important foundations that every lead worshipper needs to have; The Word of God, How to be led by the Holy Spirit, and the Fear of the Lord. Come get your face blown off!

- Google Earth View of the Bible: Doug White 221 B

In the same way, each of us may search Google Earth to find our town (or even our house!) and then "pan out" to see the big picture of our state, country and our earth; we need to gain an appreciation of the whole Bible. You won't want to miss this meta-narrative (cool word) understanding of Scripture.

- Stomping Out Fear: Mark Keyes 309 A

Rejection, failure and disapproval are very real fears. But God is a refuge from all fears! Discover how to use the Bible's truth to help you stomp out fear in your life.

- Be a Winner: Dennis Worley 311 B

Performance on the court and achievements on the field guide how most athletes measure their own sense of worth. Skill development comes before character development and winning is the most important thing of all. But God sees you differently—you're already a winner in His eyes! Learn more about how God sees you and what He thinks about you.

- A Vandal in the Garden: Phil Howard 311 E

Adam and Eve had a good thing goin' on...and then something unbelievably tragic happened; "sin" entered their life in the Garden and their lives were literally never the same. Sin has a profound impact on our ability to experience healthy relationships, and if we are ever to experience healthy relationships in the future we'll need to have some conversations about what to do about sin in our "garden".

- Choosing "The One"- What your date SHOULD look like: Jay Abiera 311 H

Everyone's looking for "The One". Everyone wants to find the perfect guy or girl to date, get married and live happily ever after. But, do you really know the kind of person you should or shouldn't be dating? Can the Bible really give us practical principles to help us find "The One"? This seminar will look at what God has to say about the kind of people we should consider dating.

- The Purpose of the Church: Tyler Thigpen 312 C

What are Christians Supposed to Be About? The answer may surprise you. Words like "worship", "witness", and "community" can be very confusing, particularly if you're a new Christian (or not a Christian), and you don't speak Christian lingo. So what do Christians do anyway? What makes Christians different than anyone else? This seminar will explore the question: What is the purpose of the church? And, by "church", I don't mean buildings; I mean Christians everywhere.

- Restoring God's Creation in You: Dave Park 315

Who are you—really? Do you struggle with feelings of rejection or worthlessness? Do you lack a sense of purpose in your life? Do you struggle with understanding God? It's time to get back to God's original design for your life.

- Learning to Live Like Christ: Joe Pritchett 208 B

Jesus had a tremendous impact on individuals and communities. How can we minister like him and have a Christ-like impact on our friends, neighbors, and communities?

- What is Worship: Tim Meier 209 B

This is a question we desperately need to answer. In a day and age when "worship" has become a music genre it's important for us to understand what worship really is. Come explore lifestyles of worship from singing to running to art and what Jesus thinks about all of them.

- Spiritual Disciplines: Rick Wallace 309 B

What is a spiritual discipline? What is the purpose of spiritual disciplines? In this seminar we will take a close look at some of the spiritual disciplines such as praying, meditating on the Bible, celebration, and serving. We will discover how God uses these disciplines to transform us from the inside out.

- From Run Down to Revved Up: Tony Roos 311 F

From an old car to a run down house, we see examples of restoration each day of our lives. Yet many of us believe the lies of the Deceiver that we can never be healed and used. This workshop will explore how God is shaping you to His glory and how He wants to use YOU no matter your past or present.

- "P" is for Purity: Maureen Zapala 313

"How on earth can I stay pure when the entire culture is parading its delicious decadence all around me? Is it even worth it? I'm tempted to just give in and enjoy the buffet of sin I see every day! Why stay pure? Exactly how pure is pure? What if I've already blown it sexually? And for goodness sakes, what do I do when my hormones are raging and my passion is ablaze???" If this is you talking, you need this session! Let's explore the Problem, Price, Privilege, and Power of Purity so you can be equipped to live a life that not only is pleasing to God but rewarding and freeing for you. You CAN have victory in this area, and you CAN live a life of purity in a desperately polluted world. And it's actually a really cool life, abundantly rich and filled with joy, promise and strength.

- Wasted Power: Francis Chan 414

We'll be looking into God's Word to discover who the Holy Spirit is and how He can empower us to defeat sin and impact others.

- Short Term Missions in Mexico: Rick Romano 208 C

What's it like to be a short term missionary? Are we helping or hindering the message? We will help you understand what we do in Ensenada Mexico with short term missions and how effective it is!

- Freedom in a Bag: Spiritual Disciplines: Erik Williams 209 C

God has some great things He wants to teach us and give to us, yet we often miss it in our hurried up, busy lives. It often seems like you pray and pray and pray and never hear from God. Spiritual Disciplines seem to be something that you HAVE to do and seem very overwhelming to most people. God wants to give you great freedom to grow in godliness. Let's take a look at the gift God has for you.

- Resisting Temptation: Rich and Lisa Brown 222 B

I'm sick and tired of dealing with the same old sins and temptations. HOW CAN I BEAT THE TEMPTATIONS IN MY LIFE???? Come learn from Hebrews 12:1-2.

- Coca-Cola Jesus: Rich Noble 311 D

What do Jesus and Coca-Cola have in common? People all over the world would like to know and you can help them find out.

- Hands for the World I: Pete Brokkop 314

We'll be talking about what "you" can do to make a difference in the lives of the lost in third world countries. These are "how to" seminars giving specific ideas. I'll be sharing experiences of real people who have made real differences in the lives of my people groups.

- The Radical Lifestyle: A Life that Really Means Something: Scott Reitz 312B
"There has got to be more to this life!" Have you ever had that thought? That thought is often the first step toward a radically different existence. Do you have a growing desire to make your life count for something? Do you feel God may be calling you to a different path? Are you wondering what you should be doing next? God is summoning you to a spiritual journey. Come and join others who are seeking to discover how their lives can count for all eternity?

- Drama Geek, Stage Freak, and Ministry: Mission Possible 311 C
Come and discover the joys and struggles of getting involved in creative outreach ministry through this action packed dramatic presentation. This session will challenge you to dig deep, becoming or strengthening who God wants you to be. Get ready to learn how to maximize your ministry potential! CAUTION: For everyone, not just drama geeks!

12:15-1:15

- Everyday Outreach for Everyday Students: Group Publishing 208 A

- Brennan Manning: 414

Brennan Manning is an author, monk, priest, contemplative and speaker. Born and raised in Depression-era Brooklyn, Brennan finished high school and enlisted in the Marine Corps, where he fought in the Korean War. Upon his return he enrolled at St. Francis Seminary and was ordained to the Franciscan priesthood. Manning then joined the Little Brothers of Jesus of Charles de Foucauld, an order committed to an unclioistered, contemplative life among the poor. He spent his days transporting water to rural villages via donkey, shoveling mud and straw in Spain, dishwashing in France, and even as a voluntary prisoner in a Swiss jail. He also spent two to three days at a time in a cave in the Zaragoza desert. During his retreat in the cave, Brennan was convicted by the Lord with these words, "I came to you who ran from me, who fled me, who did not want to hear my name. For love of you I was covered with spit, punched and beaten, and fixed to the wood of the cross." Brennan returned to the U.S. continuing with odd jobs including working on a Shrimp boat, and finally ending in Ft. Lauderdale working at Broward Community College in campus ministry. He soon fell into alcoholism and after six months of treatment he was on the road to recovery. It was then that Brennan began to write with earnest. Today, Brennan travels widely as he continues to write and preach, encouraging men and women everywhere to accept and embrace the good news of God's unconditional love in Jesus Christ.

- What me a Missionary? Rick Byham and Alliance Missionaries 312B

What is the 'New Frontier' of missions? How is missions changing? What's God doing around the world? Have you ever seen yourself as a missionary? How can you prepare to be a missionary? Let's get together to hear some thrilling stories on what God is doing all over the world, and discover how you can be a part of those stories?

12:15-1:15

- Right Living: Bob Fabey 208 A

Yahoo! I'm not going to hell...now what? Discover what happens when you realize Christianity is more than rules and regulations. Most of us understand we have been saved from something, but do we know what we have been saved to? It is greater than you think. Come and find out!

- Right Living: Dave Powers 209 A

WHOA! This is a touchy subject! There are so many opinions about what "right living" looks like. Let's chuck the opinions and go right to the Bible to find out God's heart concerning "right living". The Bible calls "right living" HOLINESS. We dare you to come, but get ready to think and deal with some junk!

- Nature of God: Doug White 221 B

If you were a contestant on the game show Identity, and were asked to identify God from many choices, what would you look for? What characteristics must be present to make the right selection?

- The Secret of Being Like Jesus: Don Dillavou 309 A

We have been told that as Christians we need to be filled with God's Spirit – how does that work? We hear about our need to die to our selves – what is that all about? We are to be Christ-like in all we do and say – isn't that a bit unreal? How does a 21st century teen get a grip on these mysterious truths while living in a world that is unfriendly toward God and unconscious toward what's right and wrong? If you really want Christ to make a difference in your life and if you really want to make a difference in your world – come and see.

- Holiness: Unleashing God's Power in You 311 B

What is holiness? Doing the right thing? Being perfect? No! It's becoming everything our loving God created you to be. Learn how to become a closer friend with God while moving away from the things that get in the way.

- Life after "LIFE": Phil Howard 311 E

Is there spiritual life after "LIFE"? When the reality of life after "LIFE" hits, how will you cultivate a vibrant, growing, sustainable relationship with Jesus? We'll talk about attitudes of the heart and specific ideas for growing closer to Jesus.

- Choosing "The One" Jay Abiera 311 H

Everyone's looking for "The One". Everyone wants to find the perfect guy or girl to date, get married and live happily ever after. But, do you really know the kind of person you should or shouldn't be dating? Can the Bible really give us practical principles to help us find "The One"? This seminar will look at what God has to say about the kind of people we should consider dating.

- A Theology of Work: Tyler Thigpen 312 C

Are you bored with school? Are you clueless about what you're going to do after high school? What about what to study in college? Should you even go to college? What kind of job will you get? If these questions bug you, then this seminar is for you. This seminar explores two things: 1) What kind of work does God intend? and 2) What do you really enjoy doing?

- Sold Out for God: Dave Park 315

As a child of God, you are a new creation! God is at work in you. But what does that look like? Explore what it means to live a holy life, make decisions God's way and find peace in Him. LIVING IN STORY IN A POSTMODERN WORLD...We are all captivated by a good story. But how can death, sex, or The Lord's Supper be a story in which we find ourselves? How can postmodernism help us, with its "image-orientation", live more fully the story of God's death-resurrection mystery? Join this exploration of living out of story and mystery instead of the certainty of knowing.

- Brennan Manning: 414

Brennan Manning is an author, monk, priest, contemplative and speaker. Born and raised in Depression-era Brooklyn, Brennan finished high school and enlisted in the Marine Corps, where he fought in the Korean War. Upon his return he enrolled at St. Francis Seminary and was ordained to the Franciscan priesthood. Manning then joined the Little Brothers of Jesus of Charles de Foucauld, an order committed to an unclioistered, contemplative life among the poor. He spent his days transporting water to rural villages via donkey, shoveling mud and straw in Spain, dishwashing in France, and even as a voluntary prisoner in a Swiss jail. He also spent two to three days at a time in a cave in the Zaragoza desert. During his retreat in the cave, Brennan was convicted by the Lord with these words, "I came to you who ran from me, who fled me, who did not want to hear my name. For love of you I was covered with spit, punched and beaten, and fixed to the wood of the cross." Brennan returned to the U.S. continuing with odd jobs including working on a Shrimp boat, and finally ending in Ft. Lauderdale working at Broward Community College in campus ministry. He soon fell into alcoholism and after six months of treatment he was on the road to recovery. It was then that Brennan began to write with earnest. Today, Brennan travels widely as he continues to write and preach, encouraging men and women everywhere to accept and embrace the good news of God's unconditional love in Jesus Christ.

- Right Living: Dave Powers 209 A

WHOA! This is a touchy subject! There are so many opinions about what "right living" looks like. Let's chuck the opinions and go right to the Bible to find out God's heart concerning "right living". The Bible calls "right living" HOLINESS. We dare you to come, but get ready to think and deal with some junk!

- Nature of God: Doug White 221 B

If you were a contestant on the game show Identity, and were asked to identify God from many choices, what would you look for? What characteristics must be present to make the right selection?

- The Secret of Being Like Jesus: Don Dillavou 309 A

We have been told that as Christians we need to be filled with God's Spirit – how does that work? We hear about our need to die to our selves – what is that all about? We are to be Christ-like in all we do and say – isn't that a bit unreal? How does a 21st century teen get a grip on these mysterious truths, while living in a world that is unfriendly toward God and unconscious toward what's right and wrong? If you really want Christ to make a difference in your life and if you really want to make a difference in your world – come and see.

- Living in Authority and Victory: Mark Keyes 311 B

It's time to live in the power and authority you've been given in Christ. God has given you the keys to break the habits and strongholds in your life. Learn how to live for Jesus in victory!

- Life after "LIFE": Phil Howard 311 E
